Subject: Class 6

Dear Parents,

Hope you and your family are safe and healthy. At Beaconhouse, we are deeply committed to providing your children with the best education possible. That includes challenging every student to discover themselves as learners with their own unique abilities. The teaching and learning fosters holistic development of children and enables them to experience learning in a way that is both meaningful and reflective of their interests and needs. Our approach helps students to understand the world in which they live, the interdependence of individuals, groups and communities as well as the awareness of social, economic and environmental issues.

For the academic session 2022-2023 commencing from August 2022, parents will have free choice to acquire all the required books and learning resources as a 'book pack' from major booksellers in open market or purchase them online at www.mybagpack.com.

Please find attached your child's stationery list for the academic year 2022-2023.

Yours sincerely,

Fareeha Ahmad
